

Student Consent to Release Financial Aid and Scholarship Information

Student Name: _____

UO ID: _____

The University of Oregon (UO) is committed to the privacy and security of our students. Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, as amended, the University shall not disclose personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records without the student’s written consent, except to the extent authorized. The complete UO Student Records Privacy Policy is available at the following webpage: <https://registrar.uoregon.edu/records-privacy>

Students may grant a third party (e.g. parent, spouse, etc.) permission to access their financial aid and scholarship information if the release is for the purpose of the application, awarding, disbursement, or administration of the federal, state, or institutional financial aid programs.

Section A – FERPA Release of Financial Aid and Scholarship Information (Please print clearly)

*Please note this consent only permits the disclosure of records maintained in the Office of Student Financial Aid and Scholarships (OSFAS). As such, records maintained in other offices will not be disclosed as a result of this authorization. For example, this consent does not include disclosure of student grades or student billing information, among other records not maintained by OSFAS. Additionally, this release is not for outside agencies for the purpose of awarding their own financial assistance. Finally, this consent does not permit a third party to take action on a student’s behalf.
