Special Circumstance Request for Independent Student - 2024 Tax Information

Student Name: _____

UO ID: _____

Our office understands there may be circumstances in which the information provided on the FAFSA does not always accurately reflect a family’s current financial situation. Please complete this form if you would like our office to review your special circumstance for consideration of additional financial aid eligibility. Also keep in mind that changes in aid eligibility generally only pertain to the federal student aid programs (such as the Pell Grant and Subsidized Direct Loan), not institutional or state aid programs. Not all changes result in additional aid eligibility.

Check one box for each of the 3 required sections listed below and attach required documentation. Please submit all documentation at one time as incomplete submissions will delay processing time.

- 1. Attach a statement to this form that addresses why your 2024 income more accurately reflects your current financial situation, instead of your 2023 income that was already reported on the FAFSA (loss of employment, separation or divorce, death of a spouse, one-time source of income, other special circumstances).
- 2. Attach a signed copy of your (and spouse, if applicable) 2024 IRS 1040 tax form, including Schedules A, C & 1-3 (if filed) if not yet filed, submit all documents together after filing your 2024 federal tax return with the IRS; or
 - Copy of your (and spouse, if applicable) 2024 W-2(s) if you worked in 2024 but will not file taxes; or
 - Check here if you (and spouse, if applicable) had no income, will not file, and were not required to file a 2024 IRS Income Tax Return.
- 3. Use the table below to report your other 2024 income (and spouse, if applicable).
