

Use this budget sheet to:

- Estimate academic year expenses
- Calculate the amount of aid that you will need to accept

DIRECT EXPENSES (Items that will appear on your University of Oregon bill)

Estimated tuition and fees	$ _____
Estimated food and housing (if living on campus)	$ _____
Matriculation fee	$ _____
TOTAL ESTIMATED DIRECT EXPENSES	$ _____ (A)*

While these items do not appear on the UO billing account, it is recommended that you budget for the following indirect expenses: books and supplies, personal expenses, and transportation. Financial aid may be used to help meet the cost of these expenses.

AVAILABLE FINANCIAL AID (Only include aid that you plan to accept)

GIFT AID

Scholarships (UO and outside sources)	$ _____
Grants	$ _____
TOTAL GIFT AID	$ _____

FEDERAL STUDENT LOANS

Subsidized	$ _____
Unsubsidized	$ _____
TOTAL LOANS	$ _____
TOTAL AVAILABLE FINANCIAL AID	$ _____ (B)
ESTIMATED BALANCE REMAINING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR (A minus B)	$ _____ (C)
*ESTIMATED PER TERM BALANCE (C divided by 3 terms)	$ _____ (D)

*All new students are assessed an additional, one-time matriculation fee on their first term bill.

If direct expenses (A) exceed financial aid (B), this is the estimated balance for the year. This balance can be paid out of pocket or additional aid may be applied for via a private loan (requires cosigner) or Parent PLUS Loan.

If available financial aid (B) exceeds direct expenses (A), a refund will be issued. Be sure to sign up for direct deposit.

Keep in mind that the balance for the year (and per term) may fluctuate based on the number of credits you are enrolled for each term and your housing and meal plan selections.
